“ Our event was a bridal luncheon for my daughter. Everything about our experience was lovely and magical. Most of the family and guests that attended were from California and New York. They were all very impressed with the ambiance and quality of service and the wonderful food and beverages.

“ It was so beautiful and quaint. I loved the setting. Our guests loved their entrees and the appetizers were a big hit! The cake was exquisite! Overall I was very pleased and will definitely be back!

What You Need To Know Before Booking

- Private events at The Lemon Bar are truly private in that our restaurant will be closed to the general public during your event. Likewise, we will not schedule more than one event per day. Our team will be 100% focused on serving YOU and your guests without distraction. For this reason, a 20% gratuity will be added to your final bill.
- General Manager Laura Erickson will help guide you through the process of booking your event at The Lemon Bar.
- For our sit-down dinner guests, our award-winning Chef Laney Glick will provide you with a specialized & elevated menu from which you will pre-select items. Your selections will be included in a special event menu which we will prepare and provide to your guests during the event.
- Should you wish to book an open house, cocktail event, or appetizer event, Chef Laney will provide you With a wonderful selection of appetizers for your guests to enjoy, including her visually stunning stationary cheese board. Other appetizers, drinks, and cocktails will be passed out by our dedicated serving staff through your event.
- For all of our party packages, we will provide you, the host, with a seasonal cocktail/wine/beer list from which you will pre-select a certain number of items. Your selections will be included in a special event Cocktail & Beverage menu (including soft drinks, tea, and water) for your guests' ordering delight.
- Dessert options are provided by award-winning Indy legend The Flying Cupcake Bakery. you will choose from a selection of cupcakes as well as lemon bars. Should you need a custom cake in addition to cupcakes, we can help you place your order through The Flying Cupcake with the cost of the additional items added to your final bill. We can also individually box our cupcakes and desserts in advance as a take-home gift for an additional boxing fee.
- Our restaurant is very cozy. We will provide you with a predetermined and prearranged seating plan. We are happy to set out provided place cards we receive in advance.
- Our team will gladly play your provided playlist throughout your event on our sound system.
- A gift area is available should you need one upon advanced request.
- To book your event, we require
 - a 50% non-refundable deposit
 - a signed event contract (which we will provide after receiving your 50% non-refundable deposit). Cash and credit card payments are accepted and may be split up to 3 ways maximum.
- A large amount of planning goes into your special event behind-the-scenes - from menu planning, food and drink preparation, and staffing, your event requires weeks of advance planning. For this reason, there are absolutely NO refunds, credits, or cancellations resulting in money due back, nor are any store "credits" for future use in our restaurant should you decide to postpone, change, or cancel your event - no exceptions. Similarly, we cannot change the date or time of your event after receiving your initial 50% non-refundable deposit. If you need to change your event date or time, you will be required to provide a new 50% non-refundable deposit for the date as your initial deposit will not be honored, credited, or refunded. Our Cancellation and Date/Time Change policy includes any cancellations or changes related to weather (inclement or otherwise), illness (including COVID-19 related), postponement of your occasion, changes in your guest count, or any other reason whatsoever - no exceptions. For this reason, we strongly encourage you to ensure you are 100% ready to book your event prior to making your non-refundable deposit!
- 14 days prior to your event, your final payment is DUE: this includes the remaining 50% balance of your event plus the 20% gratuity. Your final payment will decrease due to changes in your guest count as necessary. We can add additional guests (not to exceed 50 persons, including yourself) up to 7 days prior to your event with additional costs being due at that time.
- While our patio is adorable, we do not offer patio rental due to weather considerations out of our control. If you're blessed with great weather the day of your event, we can offer patio access to you and your guests upon request.
- When considering which package option is right for your event, please count all human beings in attendance, including yourself and any children and infants. Per local fire code, we cannot accommodate more than 50 total guests, including yourself, babies, toddlers, kiddos, surprise cousins from out of state, etc. - NO EXCEPTIONS! We will sadly have to turn away any excess guests once we reach our maximum capacity.
